VI. Tuition

Tuition payment cycle is from July through June. If you are accepted after July, your full yearly tuition will be divided over the remaining months of the payment cycle. Your first payment signals your financial commitment for the entirety of the following school year, and this contract will be binding even if your child is withdrawn or expelled. We will begin hiring teachers, setting salaries, and buying curriculum based on that commitment. The only exception would be when the vacant seat is filled by an incoming student in that class.

_____ I understand New City Classical Academy's tuition policy.

VII. Agreements

____ I agree to faithfully partner with New City Classical Academy leadership and faculty in this our first year as a school. Praying faithfully for clarity, creativity, and discernment.

____ I agree to participate in parent seminars or training and actively enter into the New City Classical Academy community.

____ I recognize that the first year is going to be a learning experience for us all and agree to extend the same kindness, mercy, and compassion that God in Christ has so graciously offered us.

____ I have read the Statement of Faith and I agree to have my child taught in accordance with it.

New City Classical Academy desires to provide the best education possible for students who are admitted. Due to staffing, funding, and facility limitations, some children may not be admitted because the school cannot adequately provide for their learning needs. The nature of the school curriculum necessitates that children who have been diagnosed with learning differences must be able to meet the same academic standards as all other children in their grade level. Children with physical/ motor limitations who may require special provisions will be considered for admission on a case-by-case basis.

Describe how your child usually responds to discipline.

Is there anything else of which we should be aware to help us know your child better?
